Article 1 National Taiwan University (NTU or “the University”) formulates the NTU Regulations for Outstanding Youth Selection (“the Regulations”) to commend students who demonstrate both exemplary character and outstanding academic performance.

Article 2 Any NTU student (including graduate students) whose GPA was 2.93 or above in the previous semester, who has not been issued warnings or demerits during their period of study, and who meets any of the following criteria may, at the recommendation of the competent unit, be nominated as a candidate for the NTU Outstanding Youth Awards:

1. Demonstration of exemplary character, hard work, and exceptional academic/research performance
2. Performing patriotic acts or making extraordinary contributions to the University
3. Dedication to public welfare and social services that sets an example for other youths
4. Excellence service as a student club officer
5. Other notable and praiseworthy deeds

Article 3 Each unit, faculty member, and student group at the University may recommend one student per year by submitting a recommendation form with the required documents to the competent authority during the announced application period.

After all submissions are tabulated, the competent authority shall conduct a preliminary review and compile a list of eligible candidates. The list shall be forwarded to individual colleges, which shall conduct a secondary review to rank the candidates from the most highly recommended to the least recommended. The number of candidates may equal up to 2 times the quota allocated to individual colleges (fractions shall be unconditionally rounded to one decimal place) and up to 2 candidates may be recommended when nominees number less than 2. The results shall be sent back to the competent authority for final selection.

Article 4 An Outstanding Youth Selection Committee (“the Committee”) shall be convened with one faculty member from each college attending. The Vice President for Student Affairs and Vice President for Academic Affairs shall be ex officio members of the committee, with the former serving as convener.

Article 5 The Committee shall select an appropriate number of awardees from among the candidates to be commended and presented with a medal and certificate by the University or an organization not affiliated with NTU.

Article 6 The Regulations shall be passed by the Administrative Meeting and then implemented on the date of promulgation.
